New Real Estate Attorney Joins Flora Pettit

Flora Pettit is pleased to announce that Thomas B. Gladin has joined the law firm in its Harrisonburg office.

Thomas Gladin focuses his practice on commercial real estate, secured financing, title matters, Section 1031 exchanges, and business matters. Thomas formerly served as a Circuit Court Law Clerk to the Honorable Edward A. Robbins, Jr. of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit of Virginia and interned at the Court of Appeals of Virginia. Thomas’ judicial clerkship experience provides him with a unique and practical perspective on his client’s legal issues. Following his judicial clerkship Thomas practiced with a mid-sized Virginia law firm in the Tidewater area of Virginia, focusing on real estate transactions and related matters. Thomas earned his undergraduate degree from Virginia Commonwealth University and his law degree from the Regent University School of Law.

Andrew Baugher, President of Flora Pettit, said, “We are very excited that Thomas has joined our team and he is already contributing significantly to client successes. We believe Thomas and his family will enjoy practicing law and living in our community. Flora Pettit is fortunate that it continues to find outstanding attorneys to serve our business and individual clients now and in the future.”

Flora Pettit PC is a sophisticated mid-sized business and litigation law firm providing services through offices in Harrisonburg and Charlottesville, Virginia. Its attorneys have a depth of knowledge and experience that serves its clients well and allows its attorneys to bring even greater resources to complex representations.
